

Year-end wrap up 2013

Date: _____

Why this is important

Reflecting on what you accomplished is a surefire way to guarantee continued progress. A yearly review is essential for any gamechanger to help you figure out how close you are getting to making that big dream happen. This process will help you re-evaluate your long-term goals to see if they are still a fit with what you truly want and need.

- ★ Print this out and set a few minutes aside to really explore how your year has been and where you want to go next.
- ★ Plan to complete it by December 31st for the most effect!
- ★ Share it or do it with someone close to you to strengthen your commitment.

1. The major things that I have accomplished this year include:

2. In particular, I am really excited that I:

3. I have noticed that I have built these strengths/qualities this year:

4. I had a profound impact on these people this year for these reasons:

5. My top three greatest insights of the year have been:

6. What I need to leave behind this year and move on from is:

7. The opportunities facing me/my business right now are:

8. The challenges that are facing me/my business right now are:

9. Next year I want to put more attention on:

10. The impact that I want to make in 2014 includes:

11. My top desires for 2014 are:

12. Next year, I would be thrilled if I was able to (this should be pure joy!):

Other notes, ideas, strategies: